

Welcome Home

Home to historical gems, all-star sports teams and top restaurants within walking distance!

Grab a Bike

Capital Bikeshare is the region's bike sharing system (first in the U.S., too). With more than 430 stations, 3,500 bikes and the Spotcycle app, you can travel like a local for work or play! Grab a red bike at your nearest station. capitalbikeshare.com

Ride the Rail

Metrorail provides a convenient transportation option to nearly all major DC places to see and be seen. Rides start at $1.75 and require a SmarTrip® card, available for purchase at any Metrorail station and select CVS/pharmacy and Giant Food stores. wmata.com

Catch a Bus

Metrobus and the DC Circulator are low-cost travel solutions. The DC Circulator operates six unique routes to the city's most popular sights—the National Mall, Nationals Park, Georgetown and Union Station. It arrives every 10 minutes and costs only $1 to ride (cash or SmarTrip® cards accepted). dccirculator.com | wmata.com/bus

Hop a Streetcar

All aboard! Ride along H Street and Benning Road with the DC Streetcar linking you with District neighborhoods. A streetcar arrives every 15 minutes and is free to ride. dcstreetcar.com

Take a Walk

Did you know Washington, DC ranks as the seventh most walkable city in America? With 11.9% of DC commutes done by walking, try taking your next trip by foot.
